

ANDERS HEALTH CARE SERVICES

ALWAYS FOCUSED ON WHAT WORKS FOR RURAL HEALTH CLINICS

Now more than ever, health care today is a balancing act. It's about employees, technology, reimbursements, regulations, reform – and of course, patient care. Our comprehensive view of the health care industry recognizes how everything you do in your organization impacts your bottom line.

Whether you're a physician or a CFO or a practice administrator, the team at Anders will give you the vision and direction to make sense of your finances and operations, and free you to focus on your patients.

Just as things in this industry are always changing, we'll always be right by your side to answer your questions and help drive smart, informed decisions. You'll have direct access to our health care leaders and our entire team of industry and advisors.

We offer extensive, multidisciplinary financial and advisory services for physicians, hospitals, medical centers, home health organizations, nursing homes and other facilities, from individual practices to multilocation health systems.

Our advisors bring a strong combination of financial, operational and strategic expertise to help you succeed.
